The Honorable Ajit Pai
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chairman Pai,

On behalf of the National League of Cities (NLC), I am pleased to support the application of Councilor John Fogle of the City of Loveland, Colorado to the serve on the Intergovernmental Advisory Committee of the Federal Communications Commission.

Councilor Fogle has been a valuable contributor to NLC's Information Technology and Communications Committee since 2015. In this capacity, he has collaborated with local officials from across the country to advocated for expanded affordable broadband access, , stronger and safer communications networks, and technology-driven economic growth for cities, towns and villages. His leadership and support for the Pulse broadband initiative in his community further illustrate his dedication to connectivity. His experience with these issues, and his connection to local officials throughout the nation would make him a valuable addition to the IAC.

NLC is the nation's oldest and largest organization devoted to helping city leaders build better communities. NLC is a resource and advocate for 19,000 cities, towns and villages, representing more than 218 million Americans.

If you have any questions, please contact Angelina Panettieri, Legislative Manager, Information Technology and Communications. Angelina can be reached at (202) 626-3196 or by email at panettieri@nlc.org.

Sincerely,

Clarence Anthony
CEO and Executive Director
