Jessica Rosenworcel, Chairwoman
Federal Communications Commission
45 L Street NE
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chair Rosenworcel:

I am pleased to submit this letter of recommendation in support of John Fogle's application to represent the City of Loveland and Loveland City Council on the Intergovernmental Advisory Committee with the Federal Communications Commission. I have worked closely with John in city government for many years, and I consider John to be a true leader and a good man.

Locally, John has been a force in helping to bring the Pulse broadband network to our city of Loveland during a time of massive population growth via Loveland Pulse. John is both a visionary and a get-it-done type of leader who is able to bring his vision to fruition. The results of his work with the FCC through the unprecedented Covid-19 crisis attest to this.

I know that John's previous service on the Intergovernmental Advisory Committee is very meaningful to him, and he has expressed to me personally that he still has much more to offer both the City of Loveland and the FCC. John is a passionate advocate for improved technology access for all, and he has been – and remains still – a great choice to serve in this capacity.

I can attest to John's integrity through the many years that I have known him as he has worked diligently for Loveland and other cities across the US through the National League of Cities. John has a deep dedication to public service, as his extensive resume reflects. I wholeheartedly recommend John for continued service on the IAC.

Sincerely,
